COUNTY HOME OBSERVES 1ST ANNIVERSARY

Today marks the first anniversary of the opening of the new Adams County Home, and members of the Adams County Home Auxiliary learned at their meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home in marking the anniversary that state officials have been high in their praise of the facilities of the home and even more laudatory of the general interest and cooperation shown by the people of the county in the conduct of the county's home.

W. E. Jordan, superintendent of the home, told of the praise given the county at the recent state convention of county home superintendents which he attended. He said speakers singled out the manner in which so many groups and individuals in the county assist in the conduct of the home.

MANY DONATIONS

It was reported at the meeting that the patio filled with flowers, was planted by the Chestnut Hill Garden Club. One dozen rose bushes were sent by the Jackson Perkins Co. through arrangements made by Mrs. Raymond Powell. The bushes, planted by Earl Carey, have won the national award as the Rose of the Year. They will not be named until June and are not yet available to the public.

A therapy program, in which 30 of the women and 15 of the men guests are participating is operating with volunteers. The therapist is Mrs. George L. Engleke. It was announced that additional volunteers are needed and those interested are asked to call Mrs. Paul Reday. The matron, Mrs. Jordan, said the therapy program "has had a good effect on the morale of the guests."

OTHER DONORS

Thirty-two of the guests went on a tour of the apple orchards Monday afternoon. George Coleman provided apples for the guests before starting the trip and the group stopped for refreshment.

Misses Bus Here, She Starts Walking

Miss Pamela Murphy, 13, Lansdowne, was well on her way home when she was discovered missing from a bus load of youngsters here Tuesday.

The young woman was left behind when the bus departed from one of the museums here. Undaunted she started walking. Her absence was noted and school officials called borough police at 1:25 o'clock to be on the lookout for the girl.

Police could not find her here but Littlestown police reported they had located her at 2:30 o'clock. The determined young woman, finding the bus had gone, had decided to get home, by walking if necessary, and started en route to Arbutus Junior High School in Maryland where she was enrolled. She remained at Littlestown until school officials returned to pick her up there.

SAYS TRAINING IN RELIGION NOT SCHOOL TASK

Advising a "do it yourself" plan for parents in regard to the religious training of their children, District Attorney Harold Irwin of Cumberland County told members of the York Springs Elementary School Parent-Teacher Association Tuesday evening that "religious education is not the obligation of the schools but of the parents."

"If parents would fulfill that obligation, we could take the Bible reading out of the schools without any real effect. Laws that regulate morals are basically the responsibility of the parents," he said.

Mr. Irwin was speaking on the subject: "Moral and Spiritual Guidance: How Far Should Schools Go?" Mr. Irwin reviewed the legal controversy about Bible reading in the schools since 1958. He said the ruling against Bible reading in the schools may apply nationally "but it won't completely exclude God and religion from the schools because we'll still observe Christmas and we won't have school on Sunday and it won't rule out the moral concepts usually taught in schools."

Lack of concern by parents for the training of their children was given as one of the main reasons for juvenile delinquency. The speaker urged that children be kept busy on hobbies or jobs for "idleness leads to trouble," Irwin said.

The annual election of officers was conducted during Tuesday's meeting and resulted in selection of the following: President, Mrs. Frank Myers; first vice president, William Wenger; second vice president, Mrs. Paul Lehmer; third vice president, Mrs. Albert Townsend; secretary, Mrs. Randolph Metz; assistant secretary, Mrs. Earl Fetrow; treasurer, Bennie Fadenrecht; delegates to Ernest Simpson, chairman of the model aviation committee, requested that club members direct youngsters' interested in model aviation to him.

Twenty-five members attended with President Jack Chronister in charge.

FRANKLIN TWP. SCHOOL BOARD RAISES TAXES

Faced with increased payments into the operating fund of the Gettysburg Joint School System and with extra obligations because of the new high school at Gettysburg and its own school building project, the Franklin Twp. board of school directors Monday evening voted an 11-mill increase in the real estate tax and passed a resolution providing for a 10 per cent occupation tax.

The new real estate levy in the township will be 55 mills for school purposes. The board also retained the $10 per capita tax, the one per cent real estate transfer tax and the five per cent amusement tax.

EXPLAIN INCREASE
The budget for 1962-63 was presented and "discussed considerably." An increase of $42,300 over the 1961-62 budget, it was explained, results from increases in two areas of the new budget.

The township school district's debt service will increase from $16,209 in the present year to $46,505 in 1962-63. Of that latter sum $23,500 will be the debt service payment for the new school building project at Cashtown and $23,005 will be the township's share of the rental on the new joint high school building here, a board announcement said.

Franklin Twp. payments to the joint school district's operating expenses will jump from $91,460 to $120,415, an increase of $29,000 over the present year. It was to meet these obligations that the township board had to raise the tax levy.

President Thomas O. Oyler presided at the meeting which was held at the Cashtown School. Other directors in attendance were Harry Hall, Clarence Ketterman, Arthur Kane and Ross White.

Mr. Ketterman was elected secretary to complete the term of the late C. C. Culp. The Gettysburg National Bank was re-elected as

Can't Kiss! Sues Dentist

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP) — Mrs. David Hashagen of Nixa, Mo., has sued a Springfield dentist for $30,000, alleging she took his advice to have a wisdom tooth removed almost a year ago and as a result is impaired in eating, speaking and kissing.

The suit was filed Tuesday against Dr. Paul Bunch. "Plaintiff's ability to perform the age-old art of kissing has been impaired and lost," says Mrs. Hashagen's petition. She contends the extraction did physical violence to her nerves and damaged her lower jawbone.

The Land Grant Centennial was the subject Frank Zetle, county agent, discussed at the morning program. The audio-visual presentation of the Civil War was explained at the Battlefield Visitor Center by Dr. Harry Pfanz and then shown. A tour of the center followed.

Afterward, the group was served lunch at the United Church of Christ, Springfield flower bouquets decorated the tables. The Harrisburg Road Homemakers' Club and Hunt Avenue Homemakers made the flower arrangements.

"BEYOND MY POWER"

Beyond the realm of poetry
... beyond the scope of song
... my love for you is everlasting ... tender and yet strong ... out of the reach of wildest dreams ... that soar to places high ... I love with love beyond a love ... that lives to beautify ... no word or deed could justify ... all that you mean to me ... for every time I look at you ... my paradise I see ... if it were possible to grasp ...
soft moonbeams in my arms
... or capture rainbows' wondrous hue ... I could foretell your charms ... and I am sorry this can't be ... for only godly art ... can justifi-ably explain ... the love within my heart.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times
TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Hitler Warns Reich Clergy:

Adolph Hitler threatened bluntly today to "withdraw the clergyman's license" from any one who tried to "disturb our community spirit." He lashed out at opposition — Catholic or otherwise — in a speech at the Lustgarten in Berlin, often the scene of wildly cheering Nazi gatherings. But today's reaction was one of moderate applause. Some 50,000 workers gathered in the huge square. An unbroken wall of 45-foot swastika banners flanked the square on both sides. Many women and some men fainted under the hot sun. "If anybody tries through encyclicals, sermons or other religious measures to disturb our community spirit we will simply withdraw the clergyman's license from such," Hitler cried. "It will not do for certain circles to criticize our morals when they have the greatest reason to be concerned about morals in their own ranks." Hitler's speech provided further repercussions of the fight between Nazism and Catholicism.

Orchards In Bloom: Peach orchards are in full bloom this week and will draw hundreds of Sunday motorists to the Adams County fruit belt. Apple and cherry orchards show only center blossoms in blossom clusters open and fruit men say that during the weekend the apple belt will be at the height of beauty.

Lawyers Oppose Bill To Create State Bar: Members of the Adams County bar association at a meeting Friday afternoon in the law library in the court house adopted a resolution placing them on record as "earnestly opposed to the adoption by the legislature of Pennsylvania a pending act known as House Bill No. 1753 which is designed to create an agency known as the 'Pennsylvania State Bar.' The resolution is being embodied in a letter which is being sent to State Senator John S. Rice and Assemblyman Charles H. Richter in which these legislators are asked to fight the passage of the measure which is condemned "in its entirety" by the county bar. John D. Keith, Esq., who presided at the session, said, "Under the Pennsylvania State Bar bill the members of the bar of this commonwealth would be incorporated and that creature would take complete charge and control of the practice of the law of this state."

To Open Law Office: J. Francis Yake, Esq., McSherrytown, now practicing in the law offices of Keith and Bigham, Esqs., will open offices June 1 in the second floor of the Topper building, next to the court house on Baltimore St. The offices are now being redecorated. They were formerly occupied by J. Donald Swope, Esq., for a number of years.

Who Gets The $225? With the Adams County commissioners and Women's Pennsylvania Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals claiming the $225 collected from persons seized in a state police raid on a Midway home where a cockfight was being operated early this month, Justice of the Peace John H. Baschore, who collected the forfeited bonds in the case, turned that sum into court. There will be a hearing May 17 to decide who gets the $225.

To Erect Chapel: The board of directors of the George W. and Agnes Hoffman Orphanage, near Littlestown, at its quarterly meeting held Thursday at the home, took steps for the erection of a chapel at the home, which is maintained by the Reformed Church. This further development in the plan of the Orphans' home is made possible by the bequest of the late Sarah J. Leiphart, York, who left money for the erection of a building in memory of her husband and herself. By the action of the board, it was decided that the building should

NERVES

Our nerves have to bear the brunt of a great deal of pounding. Treated patiently and kindly, they fairly leap to give health, inspiration and happiness to the one who owns them.

But abused nerves flounder, growl and run wild as well. Nerves were put into the human frame to act as servants. But in somewhat the same manner as some domestic servants, when ill-treated and without consideration, they serve no more, and all is thrown into a state of confusion. Without a healthy, calm and well ordered nervous system, it is impossible to be strong and able in body or in mind. The large majority of people who are crisscross and irritable, and who we classify as being very unsatisfactory, may in reality be very wonderful persons, but with a rebellious nervous system on their hands, like a ruler obsessed by revolutions.

Rest is the greatest thing in the world to coax tired nerves into submission. Another thing is relaxation while you are at that rest. The large majority of people who are lashed by nerves and who seek rest, do not rest at all. They fail to relax.

Another way to make nerves come back to their happy state again is to seek rest, recreation, and happiness in change. Never become tied to anything. The free life is usually the healthiest, as well as the happiest.

Always remember that nerves were created as servants — not masters. And how these nerves do serve when mastered! Every great athlete, builder, executive, soldier, surgeon knows this. Nerves must be treated with consideration for they are more sensitive than a child. But they can be built into veritable "iron men," able to carry you through the direst emergency.

Be good to your nerves — that's all!

Just Folks

THE NECESSARY ART
He has faith he tried to teach;
Knew the truth but couldn't tell it.

For he spoke with faltering speech
And he lacked the art to sell it.

He was earnest and sincere.
All he told was past denying,
But his voice was hard to hear
And the people gave up trying.

One with less of faith than he,
But with more of manners splendid,
Grew by showmanship to be
By admiring throngs attended.

Not enough the truth to know;
Man must gain the knack to tell it.

Not enough high faith to show,
Man must also learn to sell it.

Historian For Park Is Named: Announcement was made at the local national park office of the appointment of Dr. Frederick Tilberg, younger brother of Dean W. E. Tilberg of Gettysburg College, as assistant historian at the national park office here. He began his duties today at an annual salary of $2,600, the sum prescribed for assistant historians under the United States civil service regulations. Dr. Tilberg qualified for the position through a national civil service examination given about a year ago and was listed first among the eligibles for appointment here. The new appointee fills a new position here and will be in full charge of historical work in the Gettysburg national park with Dr. Louis B. King and William H. Allison, other staff members, as his assistants.

Local Couple Asks Damages: Defense witnesses were being heard in court this afternoon as the trial of the damage action in which Dr. and Mrs. Ralph D. Wickerham, East Broadway, are the plaintiffs, drew to a close in common pleas court here. The local couple seeks damages of August VonHahn Jr., Flushing, N. Y., decorator. The suit is the result of an automobile accident last August, two and a half miles east of Bedford on the Lincoln highway as the Wickerhams were returning to Gettysburg at the end of a vacation trip. Both Dr. and Mrs. Wickerham were injured in the crash. Mrs. Wickerham's left knee suffered multiple fractures. Their car was damaged beyond reasonable repair.

RAIL MERGER; IS UP TO ICC

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Pennsylvania and New York Central railroads turned their efforts today to persuading the federal government that their proposed merger, endorsed by stockholders of the two huge lines, was in the public interest.

The merger plan highballed through simultaneous annual meetings of the railroads Tuesday, the Pennsylvania's in Philadelphia and the Central's in Albany, N.Y. The endorsement was overwhelming.

The proposal next goes to the Interstate Commerce Commission where it is expected to face a stern test. Rail officials predicted ICC hearings beginning in mid-summer with approval of the merger by the end of next year.

UNION OBJECTS

The Transport Workers Union, which claims 30,000 members employed by the two lines, said in New York City the proposed "monopoly merger jeopardizes our national safety" and "threatens wholesale slaughter of railroad jobs."

If the merger goes through, the combined system—to be called the Pennsylvania New York Central Transportation Co.—would have assets of about $5 billion, 20,000 miles of rail routes, and 120,000 employees.

The merger is the largest ever proposed. The Pennsylvania has greater assets than any other U.S. railroad. The Central ranks third, behind Southern Pacific.

Alfred E. Perlman, Central president, expressed confidence the merger would win ICC approval.

HUGE SAVINGS

The roads expect savings of more than $75 million a year to result from their union.

Last year, the Pennsylvania had a net profit of $3.5 million on an investment of $2.9 billion. The Central reported a net loss in 1961 of $12.5 million.

Perlman and James M. Symes, Pennsylvania board chairman, said the union would be part of an emerging pattern for three competitively balanced rail systems.

Besides the Pennsylvania-Central system, there would be the system developing out of the proposed consolidation of the Chesapeake & Ohio and Baltimore & Ohio, and an other form the proposed merger of the Norfolk & Western with the Wabash and Nickel Plate railroads.

Under the merger plan, Central stockholders would receive 1.3 shares in the new company for each share of Central stock they hold. Pennsylvania stock will be exchanged on a one-for-one basis.

Crewman Killed In Train Wreck

UNIONTOWN, Pa. (AP)—A Pennsylvania Railroad freight train plowed into some cars on a siding at nearby Vances Mill Junction early today, killing one crewman and injuring another.

The body of fireman J. H. Yarnovich, 42, of nearby West Brownsville, was trapped in the cab for several hours. Engineer J. R. Owens, 44, also of West Brownsville, was taken to Uniontown Hospital in fair condition with a broken arm, scalp cuts and multiple abrasions.

A railroad spokesman said someone tampered with a track switch, causing the 13-car freight to go onto the siding by mistake.

A gondola car flipped up in the air and crashed down on the engine, smashing the cab. It was the only car that left the track.

The 13 empty cars were being taken from West Brownsville to Uniontown. Vances Mill Junction is four miles north of Uniontown.

COUPLE WEDS IN HOSPITAL

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—Phyllis Irene Jarvis of Gravesend, Kent, England, and Norman Barrett of Kansas City were married Tuesday in Room 301 at Research Hospital.

The bride wore a white dress with orchid corsage. The bridegroom wore a hospital gown with casts on right leg and left arm. Norman and Phyllis, both 25, met in 1960 when he was visiting England. They started making wedding plans. She had trouble arranging entry into the United States. He was called to active duty with the Air Force Reserve. Phyllis finally arrived April 18, but on March 28 Norman had wrecked his car. He'll be in casts at least three more months.

"I'll take him, broken leg and all," said Mrs. Barrett.

PHIL SILVERS TAKING PART IN MANY PLAYS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Phil Silvers is a charming, intelligent and talented comedian.

How do I know that? He told me.

"Tell you how to start your story," said Silver in his ratalatata style. "Phil Silvers is a charming, intelligent and talented comedian."

Phil was making a sentimental return to 20th Century-Fox, where he spent eight of his youthful years.

"Just dropped in to see my old friend, Dean Martin, and what happens?" he said indignantly. "They put me to work."

MORE LIKE PLAY

The work is playing a cameo role as an insurance man in "Something's Got to Give."

Silvers made it seem more like play than work as he and Martin gagged between and during scenes.

"This is your world," Silvers scoffed. "Mine is the theatric. Ah, to be back on the boards again."

The boards will have to do without Silvers for a while. After winding up "Do Re Mi" in Detroit, he moved his family here. He has enough work to engage him. In fact, he is cast in three films currently shooting. Besides this one, he is to play Tony Curtis' boss in "40 Pounds of Trouble" and a con man in "It's a Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad World."

Silvers admitted times weren't the same at Fox on his return: "I'm not following John Payne around."

Driving Career Of Moss Is Ended

LONDON (AP)—Star auto race driver Stirling Moss suffered severe brain injuries in his April 23 crashup that it may end his racing career, a hospital report implied today.

"Now that the conscious level is so much improved and he has quite lengthy and lucid periods, it is possible to say with certainty that he has a marked weakness of the whole of the left side of the body, involving race, arm and leg," the hospital said. "This weakness is due to severe bruising on the right side of the brain."

"There is a possibility that full recovery of the functions in the arm and leg will not take place," the report added.

RAIN AND SNOW IN SOME AREAS

Rain again fell over wide sections of the country today. In Massachusetts it was mixed with snow.

Early morning precipitation was reported in the Pacific Northwest, northern California, the northern Rockies, in parts of the Middle West and Southwest, the Atlantic Coast states and southern New England.

About an inch of rain fell at Paducah, Ky., and Oceana, Va. Some 50 miles northeast of Wichita, Kan., at the Cassoday interchange on the Kansas Turnpike, more than 1½ inches of rain was reported along with a half-inch of hail.

Early temperatures ranged downward from a high of 89 at Gila Bend, Ariz., to 26 at Pelletier, Maine. There were a number of near-freezings in the extreme northern portion of the Great Lakes region.

PENNSYLVANIA HAS FULL-TIME D.C. LOBBYIST

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania has a full time lobbyist in Washington today. He is Andrew J. Duran, who has been on the staff of U.S. Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., since 1957.

Duran's appointment as Gov. Lawrence's special representative in the nation's capital was made by the governor Tuesday. Duran will receive $10,432 a year.

The 29-year-old Duran, a native of Allison in Fayette County, now lives in suburban Washington. He will work under the State Commerce Department with his special assignment being redevelopment projects.

FIRST STATE JOB

It is believed Duran will be the state's first full time lobbyist in Washington. The state has assigned persons there on special assignments from time to time, however.

In making the announcement, Lawrence said: "Pennsylvania has activated a large number of proposed (federal) area redevelopment administration projects in Washington and many of the communities involved need the assistance that can be provided by a knowledgeable individual on the scene."

The governor said Duran also would seek to place federal contracts with Pennsylvania business firms in an effort to stimulate employment.

NO OBJECTION

In Washington, Duran said he regretted leaving Clark's service in an election year.

"But the senator realizes the necessity for the job and gallantly put up no objections," he said.

Duran is a graduate of St. Vincent's College at Latrobe. After two years in the Army he came to Washington to attend Georgetown Law School. It was then he took a part time job with Clark, eventually dropping law school to work full time in the senator's office.

"I guess I got the Capitol Hill bug," said Duran. "I became more and more interested in Congress and politics."

Duran has continued schooling, however, doing graduate work at American University in political science.

COLLEGE BOWL MODERATOR TO QUIT SERIES

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Allen Ludden, after two weeks of pondering, came to a painful decision. He will quit "College Bowl" at the end of this season after six years as master-of-ceremonies and stay on with "Password" in its daytime and evening versions.

The decision was forced on Ludden when CBS decided to put the evening edition of "Password" into a Sunday spot next season, separated only by a half-hour from "College Bowl." Sponsor of the latter program felt that, even though "College Bowl" was earlier, the two programs, so close together, might prove a little too much Ludden.

Ludden, who was enthusiastic about his long, happy association with the quiz show, said he "finally decided I should go along with a program that had grown from a daytime game show to a prime-time evening show."

OFFERS CHALLENGE

"Password" offers scope, and a challenge," he added. "It has turned me into a fulltime performer. Besides, I'd done the other show for a long time, so it wouldn't prove anything much to me if I did another season of it."

"College Bowl" is busily sorting out applications for Ludden's replacement. Producer John Cleary said that the host doesn't have to be all brain—the difficult questions can be studied in advance, and the big words in the question are spelled phonetically.

ANCHORMAN

Douglas Edwards, who wanted to be released from his CBS contract when the network pulled him out of his evening news show, must feel better about things now. He will be anchorman in a series "news extras" on the network next season—shows which will be CBS' adaptation of NBC's successful series of "instant news specials" anchored by Frank McGee during the past year.

Recommended tonight: Circle Theater, CBS, 10-11 (EDT) — dramatization of the story of a Cuban journalist who fled the Batista regime and returned to Castro and disillusionment.

Giants Whip Cards As Musial Takes Batting Lead; Mets Take 9th

By JIM HACKLEMAN

Associated Press Sports Writer
San Francisco's surging Giants march on while other National League contenders stand still—or worse. Whatever became of that multiple-team, wire-to-wire pennant race?

Taking on their closest pursuer and an old pitching nemesis Tuesday night the Giants carried away a 4-3 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals, boosting their lead to four games.

To gain the narrow win, the Giants had to beat Larry Jackson, who had whipped them eight straight times over a two-season span, and withstand some late Cardinal trouble. They did both on the tough pitching of Juan Marichal (5-2) and the star hitting of Orlando Cepeda, winning for the 12th time in their last 13 games.

Los Angeles counter-rallied against Houston for a 9-6 decision in 10th inning, Philadelphia beat Cincinnati 6-4 and New York's Mets got out of last place for the first time in their young history and shoved Chicago into the cellar, downing the Cubs 3-1. The Milwaukee Braves and the Pirates were rained out at Milwaukee.

EXTRA BASE HITS

The Marichal-Cepeda combination paced the Giants, with Felipe Alou and Ed Bailey chipping in with vital hits. Cepeda slugged a two-run double against Jackson (3-3) in the first inning, then he and Alou connected for successive doubles in the eighth, breaking a 2-2 tie. Bailey came through with a single, delivering what proved to be the winning run.

The Cards played long ball against Marichal, counting a homer and double by Stan Musial, a homer by Carl Sawatski and Ken Boyer's double among the five hits off the youthful right-hander. Sawatski's homer and Boyer's double came in the bottom of the ninth. Marichal weathered the uprising for his fifth complete game and the ninth in the last 11 games for Giant pitchers.

The amazing Musial, 41, with a host of records to his credit, climbed into the league batting lead with a .388 average. San Francisco's Harvey Kuenn, with 1-for-3, dropped to second at .381.

LOSE 5-RUN LEAD

The Dodgers dissipated a five-run lead against the rambunctious Colts but pulled it out behind the hitting of rookie Larry Burright and Maury Wills. Burright, who tripled and doubled earlier, legged out a bunt single off Bob Tiefenauer (1-1) with two away in the 10th and moved to third on Frank Howard's pinch single. Wills then crashed in the winner with his third single of the night. Two more runs scored on Dick Farrell's wild pitch and catcher Merritt Ranew's bad throw.

Reliever Ron Peralta (2-0) was the winner. The Dodgers pulled ahead 4-0, then 6-1 but the Colts kicked back by collecting 10 hits against Sandy Koufax and Larry Sherry, who each gave up a bases-filled walk.

Cincinnati was given one chance after another by Philadelphia's shaky pitching and defense, banging out 15 hits, drawing four walks and helped along by three Phillies errors. The telling figure was the 16 runners stranded by the Reds. Winning southpaw Chris Short (1-1) yielded 12 hits before he was replaced in the eighth by Dallas Green, who was tagged for Frank Robinson's two-run single. Jack Baldschun took over for Green in the ninth with one on, gave up two singles, then finished with a flourish by setting down the final three batters.

BUILD GOOD LEAD

Billy Klaus' two-run homer was the big hit as the Phils built a 4-0 lead against Jim O'Toole (2-4). They nailed it down with two more off Howie Nunn in the sixth. The Mets eased out of the cellar with help from the Cubs' erratic outfield play. One New York run came in when Billy Williams muffed a pop fly for his second two-base error of the game. The Mets wrapped it up when Felix Mantilla's key single skittered through George Altman's legs.

Hook (2-1) gave up one of the four Cub hits to the first man he faced, Lou Brock, then uncorked a wild pitch as Brock went for a steal of second. He continued on to third and scored on Williams' sacrifice fly. Don Cardwell, out for two weeks with a sore arm, gave up two singles to teammate Sammy Taylor and nothing more until the sixth, when a walk, Charlie Neal's single and Williams' error produced the tying run. Two walks and Mantilla's single coupled with Altman's misplay produced the deciding runs against Bob Anderson (0-4) in the seventh.

INDIAN'S TWO TRADES GIVE CLUB VICTORY

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer
Cleveland General Manager Gabe Paul, a wheeling and dealing type in the Frank Lane manner but a little slower and surer before he pulls the trigger, has come up with a pair of key additions to the Indians in pitcher Dick Donovan and outfielder Willie Tasby.

The often peddled players, both acquired from Washington, carried the Indians to a 6-3 triumph over Minnesota Tuesday night that pulled second-place Cleveland to within one game of the American League leading New York Yankees.

Paul, who previously pulled the strings in Cincinnati, got Donovan in the trade that sent Jim Piersall to Washington and raised a howl from Cleveland fans. He picked up Tasby for two lesser lights in a deal that raised not an eyebrow.

HAD 3 RHIS

But Tasby raised a couple against the Twins. The 29-year-old righty swinger who hit .251 last season, made his first start for the Indians and responded with a 2-for-5 performance, knocking in three runs, including what proved to be the clincher in a two-run seventh inning.

Donovan aided his own cause with a bases-loaded single that accounted for one run before Tasby stroked his hit for the decisive run.

Tasby's clincher provided Donovan with his fifth victory without a loss. The 34-year-old right-hander, who led the AL with a 2.40 earned run average while posting a 10-10 record last season, is the first hurler in the league to win five.

Al Kaline drove in four runs with his eighth homer, a triple and a single, leading Detroit to a 10-1 triumph over the Los Angeles Angels in the only other game played. Boston-New York, Kansas City-Baltimore, Chicago-Washington were postponed due to rain.

TWINS RALLY

Donovan had a 6-1 lead going into the ninth when the Twins, with a four-game win streak on the line, began to make menacing gestures. Lennie Green's homer after Bernie Allen single chased Donovan. Reliever Barry Latman gave up singles to Rich Rollins and Harmon Killebrew before ending it by striking out pinch hitter George Banks. Jim Kaat (1-4) was the loser.

While Kaline was providing the hitting, Phil Regan provided solid pitching for the Tigers to snap a five-game losing skid. Regan (2-2) limited the Angels, winners of four in a row, to six hits—one a homer by Steve Bilko. Eli Grba (1-1) took the loss.

ICE SKATING GROUP SCORES AAU POLICY

CHICAGO (AP)—From a relatively chill quarter, another shot was fired today at the reeling National Amateur Athletic Union by the Ice Skating Institute of America.

The skating institute Tuesday opened a three-day session with a blast directed at the United States Figure Skating Association which represents the AAU in international competition.

The AAU long has been bombarded by the National Collegiate Athletic Association, which has launched national federations for track, basketball and gymnastics to operate independently from the AAU.

150 RINK OWNERS

The Ice Skating Institute, headed by Mike Kirby, once a partner of Sonja Henie, is composed of 150 rink owners from throughout the country.

The blast at the AAU-affiliated U.S. Figure Skating Association was leveled by David Comb, rink owner from Belmont, Calif., who called for a program to bring the USFSA into "realistic thinking," or break with the AAU group completely.

Comb and Kirby both said that the Figure Skating Association set ridiculous standards for maintaining amateurism among young skaters of promise who skate at public rinks.

Chapman Is Ace For Hagerstown

Kenneth Chapman, Orrtanna, who graduated last year from Gettysburg High School where he starred on the baseball team as an outfielder, is enjoying a good season with the Hagerstown Junior College team. On April 28 he paced his team to a 10-9 win over Shenandoah with a home run and double and last Friday smacked a 380-foot homer as Hagerstown whipped Potomac State 11-5.

Littlestown High School's first track squad, above, was scheduled to meet Bermudian Springs in a dual meet this afternoon at Littlestown. The Bolts, coached by Gordon Warner, are engaged in a limited schedule but expect to expand to full competition next year.

BULLETS LOSE AS REGULARS MISS MEET

Bucknell managed to carry off the necessary first places and hand the Gettysburg College track team its first dual meet setback of the season by walking off with 68½-62½ decision Tuesday afternoon in Lewisburg.

Coch Hal Glad ran into trouble from the very beginning when many of his regulars didn't travel with the squad. Many of the athletes are preparing for exams and were unable to participate. Gettysburg is now 6-2 overall on the season.

SALMON WINS PAIR

Eddie Salmon was the lone Bullet double winner as he captured both the mile and two-mile run. He was clocked in the mile in 4:39.6 and covered the two-mile in 10:14.8. $40,000 Golf Meet Opens Thursday

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Most of the 34-player field of the $40,000 Colonial National Invitational Golf Tournament warm up today for Thursday's opening rounds with a crack at the $3,500 in pro-am money.

Sitting out today's rounds with the simon pures will be Arnold Palmer who Tuesday got the kiss of death from the working press, radio and television men who cover the tournament.

They picked him to win his sixth current championship and his first at Colonial.

But the fourth estate has never correctly picked a winner. In fact, in two tournaments since the poll was started in 1955, the ultimate winner failed to get a single pre-tournament vote from the press corps.

STENGEL GETS NEW HURLERS: OUT OF CELLAR

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
CHICAGO (AP)—Casey Stengel peered out of the dugout at Wrigley Field—the first time he had been there since leading his old Boston Braves against the Chicago Cubs in 1943.

"Must be a dozen fans up in the stands," said the New York Mets skipper. "Must be the cold weather. It couldn't be because the Cubs are playing us."

The opening of the three-game series—the battle of the National League cellar—actually drew 1,396 customers Tuesday. It was the smallest Wrigley Field gathering of the season.

The Cubs disappointed them by losing 3-1 as Jay Hook stifled them on four hits in his second route-going job.

TWO NEW PITCHERS

Before the game, Stengel spelled-bound a large delegation of newsmen, who filled the visiting dugout as if it were World Series time.

"I just met my two new pitchers (Vinegar Bend Mizell and Bob G. Miller) and this is what I said to them: 'Miller, how many innings you pitched?' He looked at me and said: 'Three or four.' I said: 'I guess you are ready for us anyway, so now you can consider yourself one of my early starters.'"

"I said to Mizell: 'Can you pitch?' He said: 'Yes.' I said: 'OK, you pitch for us here in the last game of the series.'"

"So, you see, we all got acquainted real quick."

REALLY SHATTERED
"Our pitching staff is really shattered and I always have a lot of re-arranging to do. Some people think I have 10 starters, but actually there are only three—Hook, Craig (Roger) and Jackson (Al)."

"And that brings me to training. We spent a lot of money getting players, and if they don't pan out after 30 or 35 days we'll get rid of some of them and may get a new batch. Any player who doesn't want to train or play for me can go to Weiss (George Weiss, general manager) or me and ask to be traded. They might go, or they might find themselves in the minors for more conditioning."

TWO SIDES TO GRID PLAYERS PLAYING OUT THEIR OPTION

NEW YORK (AP)—The case of R. C. Owens playing out his option with the San Francisco 49ers, then signing with the Baltimore Colts does not worry the National Football League, Commissioner Pete Rozelle indicated today.

"We are not concerned," he shrugged. "The cases of players playing out their options are not unique."

The 6-3, 195-pound Owens, a pass-catching specialist, shopped around both leagues before signing with the Colts. Presumably they made him the best offer.

WISMER UPSET
"Most players prefer to stay in the area where they play and where they have roots, business associates and are active in the community," Rozelle added.

But owner Harry Wismer of the American Football League New York Titans, warning that professional football is pricing itself into bankruptcy, called for a reserve clause similar to that which keeps baseball players on one team unless they are traded or retire.

In pro football, the player merely must notify his club if he wants out of his contract. Then he plays out his option for the next season for 90 per cent of his salary, and he is free.

BOOSTS PAYROLLS
"The war between the leagues has boosted payrolls 25 per cent," said Wismer. "Now the tug-of-war for players inside the leagues will hike it another 15 per cent. In a majority of cases in both leagues, the players are making more than the owners."

"If Owens can do it, what is to stop Paul Hornung of the Green Bay Packers or Johnny Unitas of the Colts from playing out their options and then putting themselves on the block to the highest bidder?"

Wisner said the players are getting fabulous salaries compared with their actual value.

SEES INDIANS AS CONTENDER

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Manager Ralph Houk of the New York Yankees surveyed the rest of the American League from the summit today and predicted that the Cleveland Indians would remain one of the top contenders the rest of the season.

"They didn't figure high in the beginning," Houk said, "but they do now. I like those two kids in the outfield, Ty Cline and Al Luplow. They have a solid infield and John Romano is a good catcher. There aren't many better arms in the majors than Willie Kirkland's."

Then Houk laughed: "I see where Al Lopez says only his own Chicago White Sox and the Detroit Tigers might be able to stop the Yanks. Wait until he sees the Indians. He's in for a shock."

The White Sox haven't played the Indians yet. The Tribe holds down second place, a game behind the Yanks after beating the Minnesota Twins Tuesday night, 6-3.

Political Leaders Will Study 1962 Protest Vote

By RICHARD L. GRAVES
HARRISBURG (AP)—With one week to go before the primary election, political organization men are trying to gauge the potential impact of so-called protest voting.

In political parlance the protest vote is that received in the primary by anti organization forces. On the basis of its size and distribution, political leaders look for flaws, or expressions of sentiment—both in their own and the opposition party—that could provide clues for campaigning in the fall.

Both Richardson Dilworth, Democratic organization-backed candidate for governor, and his Republican counterpart, U.S. Rep. William W. Scranton, are opposed for their respective parties' gubernatorial nomination.

They are the only statewide candidates in either party who have opposition in the May 15 primary election.

PROTEST TO VARY

The caliber of opposition varies sharply in the two parties, and the degree of "protest" will vary accordingly.

Scranton is opposed by J. Collins McSparran, master of the State Grange, who has conducted an all-out, well-financed campaign across the state for the GOP nomination.

Dilworth is opposed by Charles J. Schmitt, Girard, Erie County, and Harvey F. Johnston, McKees Rocks. Neither has conducted anything which resembles a statewide campaign.

Both Scranton and Dilworth have diligently avoided acknowledging the existence of their respective opponents.

McSparran is expected to collect a substantial vote next Tuesday. His backers contend he will win. Scranton's backers contend, unofficially, that the congressman will win by a margin of 5-3 to 5-2.

LOOK FOR FLAWS

A McSparran victory, of course, would be the ultimate in "protest" voting. The organization would be toppled.

A Scranton victory would leave only the question of the significance of the opposition vote. Leaders in both parties would look hard for signs of flaws or strengths.

Because of his grange affiliation, McSparran's main strength is expected to be among the state's rural Republican voters. It is also possible that a bitter intra-party squabble between warring GOP factions in Philadelphia could result in a reduced Scranton margin there. He will need Philadelphia votes to offset some of McSparran's expected upstate strength.

WIND-UP TOUR

McSparran took his wind-up tour this week into the suburban Philadelphia counties in what is seen as an effort to neutralize Scranton's strength in that area.

Scranton was in Delaware County Monday—the county GOP organization is strongly behind him—and McSparran aimed his campaign there Friday.

One clue that may be read into the Scranton-McSparran contest is the relative strength of the conservative and middle-of-the-road wings of the GOP.

McSparran generally is considered to represent the conservative faction; Scranton the middle-of-the-road wing.

On the Democratic side Dilworth is expected to win handily, though his opponents probably would dispute the claim.

One of the things politicians will be watching closely is Dilworth's showing in Philadelphia. As former mayor of the city, he is expected to carry it easily.

However, because of his intra-party feuds with City Chairman William J. Green Jr., observers will be watching for signs of contention that could reflect on the fall campaign. A large vote for either or both of the two oppo-

GOP DEMANDS INVESTIGATION OF SOL ESTES

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republicans have renewed their demands for a congressional investigation of Billie Sol Estes' relations with the agriculture department.

The chairman of the GOP congressional committee, Rep. Bob Wilson of California, said Monday that Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman tried to "whitewash" the agriculture department in his news conference Monday.

Wilson said in a statement that despite Freeman's claims that no favoritism was shown Estes by the department the West Texas financier "obviously received a lot of special consideration."

"DRAGGED A BIT"

In a long, turbulent news conference, Freeman said the department "dragged a bit," in canceling some 3,000 acres of valuable cotton allotments assigned Estes under a crop control program but he said this involved a complex legal question.

And he said "the government hasn't lost a dime—not a single dime to Estes."

Sen. Carl T. Curtis, R-Neb., said Freeman "might know that, but I don't. We are going to find out." Estes was indicted last month by a federal grand jury for fraud in connection with chateau mortgages he was charged with selling on nonexistent fertilizer tanks.

The indictment set off further inquiry into Estes' activities with emphasis on his dealings under government programs for cotton allotments and for storage of surplus grain.

MRS. GLENN IS WORLD MOTHER

NEW YORK (AP)—The American Mothers Committee, Inc., Tuesday conferred the extraordinary award of World Mother on Mrs. John H. Glenn Sr. of New Concord, Ohio. The move came in addition to the naming of Mary Celeste Weatherly of Fort Payne, Ala., as American Mother of 1962.

"This extraordinary award of World Mother is not given because John H. Glenn Jr. has become our first American orbital astronaut," said Mrs. Daniel A. Poling, president of the committee, in presenting the citation.

"It is a tribute," she said, "to the mother whose home training, guidance and love have made her hero-son a symbol of inner spiritual security, of courage and manliness for all mankind to admire and emulate."

Mrs. Weatherly, 70, a widow, has three married children, including an adopted son, all of whom have made successes in their own right. She has seven grandchildren.

Mrs. Weatherly has been active all her adult life in the Red Cross, health drives, community welfare funds, local missions and church activities.

TELECAST CONFERENCE

WASHINGTON (AP)—All of the radio networks and two of the three television networks will carry President Kennedy's news conference today as it occurs, starting at 3 p.m. Eastern Standard Time.

The White House said CBS-TV would tape the news conference and televise an hour after it starts.

The radio networks carrying the news conference live are Mutual, CBS, NBC and ABC. NBC and ABC also will carry it live on television.

nents probably would be read as a measure of cantankerousness on the part of chairman Green, regardless of whether it was.

AMBASSADOR IS RECALLED

BONN, Germany (AP)—Wilhelm Grewe, 50, West German ambassador to the United States reportedly in difficulties with the Kennedy administration, Tuesday was ordered to return to Bonn at the end of the week, the Foreign Ministry reported.

A spokesman said a decision on whether Grewe would return to Washington was expected before the weekend is over.

Chancellor Konrad Adenauer apparently sealed Grewe's fate Monday when he said the diplomat would have to be replaced.

The chancellor, visiting West Berlin, explained this would have to be done because of complications arising from the leak in Bonn of U.S. proposals for a Berlin settlement. The Kennedy administration was incensed since the leak came just before a new round of Berlin talks with the Soviet Union.

Although he was never accused of being directly responsible, it was generally admitted Grewe's usefulness suffered from the strain in West German-U.S. relations.

BRITAIN, U.S. SIDE AGAINST WEST GERMANY

By TOM OCHILTREE

LONDON (AP)—Britain sided with President Kennedy today in a disagreement developing between the United States and West Germany on the Berlin question.

U.S. Ambassador David Bruce called at the Foreign Office at his own request and conferred for half an hour with Foreign Secretary Lord Home.

A Foreign Office spokesman told newsmen Britain has been fully consulted on the line taken by the Americans in discussions with the Soviet Union over Berlin and fully agrees with it.

NO RECOGNITION

The comment came after West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer had clearly revealed his concern at the direction the American-Soviet talks are taking. He said in Berlin Monday any negotiations must not lead to any form of recognition of Communist East Germany.

It also coincided with instructions to Wilhelm Grewe, West Germany's ambassador in Washington, to return to Bonn this weekend for consultations. Adenauer said it is planned to replace Grewe.

Grewe does not hit it off well with Kennedy and his administration has taken to bypassing him in its diplomatic contacts with Bonn, informed sources have reported.

The American-West German disagreement revolves around suggestions advanced by Secretary of State Dean Rusk for a 13-nation authority to govern the access routes to isolated West Berlin.

OPEN THE DOOR

Adenauer's government objects to the proposal on the ground that it would open the way to diplomatic recognition of Communist East Germany. In the suggested access authority, East and West Germans would sit together in a high level international body.

As diplomats in London understand it, Adenauer's government does not object to the principle of internationalizing the Berlin access routes, but does not like the idea of sitting with the East Germans as equals.

The East Germans also reject the idea. East German leader Walter Ulbricht said in a Moscow interview published Monday his regime never will accept international control.

riam told a meeting of the Military Armistice Commission secretaries the violations included 23 cases of the Communists bringing automatic weapons into the demilitarized zone.

Del Crandall Is Having Comeback

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Milwaukee catcher Del Crandall, a four-time all-star game performer sidelined most of last season with a bad shoulder, is well on his way back—both at and behind the plate.

The 32-year-old Crandall has been one of the most pleasant surprises as the Braves, as preseason contender in pennant picks, struggle along with a 10-14 record.

Despite a year of virtual inactivity because of a painful right arm, Crandall is hitting the ball as well, if not better, than ever. And base runners aren't taking any liberties when he's behind the plate.

"My arm feels right, although maybe I'm more cautious in warming up, and I feel my progress grows better and better each day," he said Tuesday.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER
SILVER HAIR, A GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY. A mature lovely writes: My children are grown up and gone from home, so I now have time for charity and community affairs. But before I can brave that new world with confidence, I need a complete overhaul. My graying hair, my make-up and clothes are in a drab middle-age muddle. Suggestions please!

The answer: Start at the top—with your hair. Polish it to a higher luster and dress it in an ageless style. Then it will become a handsome focal point for updated cosmetics and clothes.

Gray hair is enhanced, and enhances you, when it is arranged in smooth waves and soft curls. Neither bunched, frizzy styles nor straight, hanging "do's" become gray-tops.

For luster, gray locks require frequent shampooing. Use a crystal-clear shampoo to cleanse and follow up with a cream rinse to tame the hair's behavior. When strands are yellowed and streaky, blend them with a temporary color rinse—one designed for the purpose. There is wisdom, too, in special permanents. If you a home-wave fan, choose a kit with lotion for silver curls and a hair beauty treatment.

Now to set off your beautiful head: Wear luscious pastels in pale or deep tones and rich darks like royal blue. Keep your jewelry elegant — one distinguished piece is worth three dinkies. As for make-up, perfect your skin tones with foundation and powder; hold your lipstick to medium shades; try silver eye-shadow and charcoal liner.

Wherever a woman operates, her success is determined by her total personality and her appearance cannot be divorced from it. "Operation Gray Hair" is no exception. In fact, it is the outstanding example of the truism!

Winners Of Pulitzer Prizes In Many Fields Announced

NEW YORK (AP) — A smash Broadway takeoff on modern American business and a novel about an Irish-American priest in a rundown Boston parish have drama and fiction.

The musical, "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying," was written by Abe Burrows, Jack Weinstock and Willie Gilbert, with a score by Frank Loesser. Edwin O'Connor wrote the winning book, "The Edge of Sadness."

"How to Succeed," which already had won awards from the New York Drama Critics Circle and the American Theater Wing, stars Robert Morse as an aggressive young businessman, and Rudy Vallee as a veteran tycoon.

Burrows pictured the award as "a kind of confirmation of what we were trying to do—tell an American story from a specific viewpoint."

AWARDED MONDAY
The 46th annual Pulitzer Prizes were awarded Monday by the trustees of Columbia University on recommendation of the Advisory Board on Pulitzer Prizes. They are administered by the Graduate School of Journalism under terms of the will of the late publisher Joseph Pulitzer.

The Panama City, Fla., News-Herald won the gold plaque for meritorious public service by a newspaper for its three-year campaign against entrenched corruption in the Gulf Coast city and surrounding Bay County.

Walter Lippman, 72-year-old veteran New York Herald Tribune syndicate writer, was cited for the second time in four years, this time for wise and responsible international reporting. He won a special Pulitzer citation in 1958.

"I FEEL GOOD"
Theodore H. White, who celebrated his 47th birthday on Sunday, became the first winner in a new Pulitzer Prize category for general non-fiction with "The Making of the President 1960," an account of the last presidential campaign.

"I just feel good that a journalistic book has been recognized in the awards," White said.
For the first time in 45 years, the trustees made no award in the category of biography. It was reported Monday night that the trustees had turned down a recommendation by the advisory board for "Citizen Hearst," W. A. Swanberg's book on the life of the late publisher, William Randolph Hearst.

PRIZE FOR HISTORY
The prize for history went to Lawrence H. Gipson, 81-year-old historian at Lehigh University, for "The Triumphant Empire: Thunderclouds Gather in the West, 1763-1775," volume 10 of a series dealing with the British Empire before the American Revolution.

The music prize was won by Robert Ward, 44-year-old Cleveland-born artist now living in Nyack, N.Y., for "The Crucible," a three-act opera first performed Oct. 26, 1961, at New York City Center. It is based on a play by Arthur Miller.

Alan Dugan, 39-year-old New York City poet, won the poetry award for his "Poems."

LOCAL REPORTING
Other journalism awards included:
Local reporting under the pressure of edition time—Robert D. Mullins, 37, reporter for the Salt Lake City, Utah, Desert News, for his coverage of a murder-kidnaping at Dead Horse Point, Utah.

Local reporting where edition time is not a factor—George Bliss, 43, of the Chicago Tribune, for his investigatory reporting on scandals in the Metropolitan Sanitary District of Greater Chicago.

National reporting—Nathan G. Caldwell, 48, and Gene S. Graham, 37, of the Nashville Tennessean. They were cited for six years of detailed reporting on under-recovered cooperation between management interests in the coal industry and the United Mine Workers.

OTHER AWARDS
Editorial writing—Thomas M. Storke, 85-year-old editor and publisher of the Santa Barbara (Calif.) News-Press, for editorials "calling public attention to the efforts of the semi-secret John Birch Society to wage a campaign of hate and vilification in Santa Barbara."

Cartoons—Edmund S. Valtman, 47, of the Hartford (Conn.) Times, for a cartoon published Aug. 31, 1961 showing Prime Minister Fidel Castro leading a chained Cuba and telling Brazil, "What you need, man, is a revolution like mine." Valtman is a native of Estonia.

The awards in the journalism category carry a prize of $1,000 each for individuals cited, except where two share a single prize. Prizes in the field of the arts amount to $500.

M'SPARRAN'S PLATFORM IN OUTLINE FORM

HARRISBURG (AP)—J. Collins McSparran outlined for the benefit of the news media Monday his campaign platform designed, he said, to get "Pennsylvania back on the road to sensible government."

McSparran will oppose organization-endorsed U. S. Rep. William W. Scranton in the May 15 primary election for the Republican gubernatorial nomination.

In an open letter to newspapers and radio and television stations in the state, the independent hopeful said his 10 years as a lobbyist for the Pennsylvania State Grange made him knowledgeable in the workings of state government.

SECRET UNION VOTES
He said also he felt he had received fair treatment from the news media during the primary campaign.

Major points in the McSparran platform included:
—Secret vote among union members for strike calls and election of union officials.
—Repeal the 1961 compulsory school reorganization law.
—More guidance and less dictation to schools from the Department of Public Instruction.

HELP FOR STUDENTS
—Financial assistance for qualified students to obtain college education.
—Curtailement of welfare aid to illegitimate children and the indigent and to build political parties; require every able-bodied recipient of relief to perform some services in repayment.

—A better balance in use of the highway funds to provide for proper maintenance of existing highways.
—Remove tolls on the Pennsylvania Turnpike between Harrisburg and Philadelphia; completion of the Keystone Shortway as soon as possible.

OTHER PLANKS
—State-owned facilities to care for aged persons who cannot be cared for in private institutions.
—Repeal of the 1961 prevailing wage law.
—Permit referendum to do away with race track betting in any county which authorized such betting at a previous referendum.
—Ban public or party officials from owning or working at a race track.
—Publishing of names of all the stockholders and others having any financial interest in a race track.

LAWRENCE IS AGAINST CUT IN STATE GUARD

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Lawrence Tuesday opposed cutbacks in Pennsylvania's National Guard Units, as proposed in a U. S. Department of Defense program.

"I'm very jealous of this National Guard in Pennsylvania," Lawrence told his weekly news conference. "I don't want it interfered with."

Pennsylvania's citizen soldiers units, he contended, are "the best in the nation."

The governor said "no one can question the good intent" of the Department of Defense, "but there is ample evidence that this decision is strongly opposed by many, including military committees set up by law to advise on such matters."

"This opposition," he added, comes from persons equally concerned with the adequacy of our nation's defense."

He said there is conflicting argument whether the National Guard strength should be increased or reduced. Congress, he said, should study both sides carefully. Lawrence added:

"I trust and I believe that such a view should not result in approval of the recommended cutbacks and I would strongly suggest that representatives of the adjutants general of the various states make every effort to sit down with officials from the Defense Department to reach an understanding on this matter which is of vital concern to the defense and well-being of the nation."

The Defense Department proposal would not directly affect Pennsylvania's famed 28th Infantry Division. It is aimed principally at small nondivisional units.

MAKES LONG COPTER FLIGHT
ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—President Kennedy Tuesday made the longest helicopter flight ever made by a chief executive—a 125-mile hop from Washington to address the United Auto Workers convention.

The President's jet helicopter touched down at Bader Field at 10:30 a.m. after an hour and 11-minute flight.

The Army helicopter is powered by twin jet engines which turn an immense five-blade rotor.

It was Kennedy's first trip in the new chopper and the flight is the longest ever made by a president in a whirlybird.

Another jet-powered helicopter, this one operated by the Marines, carried newspapermen and Secret Service agents.

The new jet choppers have a cruising speed of up to 150 miles an hour as compared with about 90 for the single-engine piston job Kennedy has used heretofore.

The new helicopters have boat-shaped bodies which could enable them to float in case of a forced landing on water.

They also have landing ramps which lower with the opening of the door. The deluxe helicopters are capable of carrying 12 passengers.

ter, director of the Arthur Hoyt Scott Horticultural Foundation, of Swarthmore, Pa., "for advancing interest in horticulture in the broadest sense."

Urges Funds For Tocks Island Dam

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Francis E. Walter, D-Pa., has urged appropriation of funds to begin engineering and design work on the proposed Tocks Island Dam and the Beltzville Dam, both Delaware River Valley flood control projects.

In a statement submitted Monday to a House Appropriations subcommittee, Walter said Army Engineers had informed him they could use $400,000 to start preparatory work this year on the Tocks Island Dam and another $170,000 on the Beltzville project. He urged funds for designing be approved this year to insure that Beltzville is completed by 1968 and Tocks Island by 1975.

SAYS OFFICIAL WAS BRIBED FOR TWO YEARS
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—John E. Francis, former deputy commissioner of public property, received cash and gifts for two years to keep silent about shortcomings on repairs to the Frankford Elevated, says an assistant district attorney.

The assistant D.A., F. Emmett Fitzpatrick, made the charge Monday as Francis went on trial for the part he allegedly played in the Frankford El scandals of April, 1960.

He is the first of three former city officials to go on trial in the case which stemmed from admissions by contractor Eli G. Travis that he gave gifts and cash to city workers while his firms were contracted for repairs to the El.

Fitzpatrick, in opening statements to the jury of nine women and three men, said Francis was paid $4,000 in 1959 by Travis and in 1960 received, among other things, a paid vacation for himself and his family, a television set, radio, and $132 monthly for car payments.

ADMITS GIVING GIFTS
Travis, said Fitzpatrick, gave the gifts to Francis on the suggestion of Harold V. Varani, former chief of architecture and engineering in the property department.

Varani and Benjamin D. Barone, former confidential secretary to the property commissioner, face trial later. All three defendants were fired from their city posts after Travis' admissions.

Travis and a fifth principal in the case, George H. Smith, former vice president of the Philadelphia Transportation Co., pleaded guilty to their parts in the alleged conspiracy last winter. They are awaiting sentence and are expected to testify for the Commonwealth.

Girl Scout News

Seventeen adults registered in the Girl Scout program met Monday evening in the social room of the Arendtsville National Bank for the May meeting of the Juliette Low neighborhood. Eight of the 11 troops were represented. Mrs. David Houck, neighborhood chairman, presided.

It was announced that troop finance reports will be due each June 30 instead of December 1 as in the past. The forms will be mailed from the Penn Laurel Council, York, to each leader.

Troop consultant, Mrs. Ross Schwartz, reported on the new program. The Brownie program will be based on the three Brownie "B's": Be discoverers. Be ready helpers. Be friend makers. The framework of the junior program will be proficiency badges and there will be two groupings, the "Sign of the Arrow" and the "Sign of the Star." These will replace the previous ranks. The cadette program will work on proficiency badges. There will be studies based on social dependability, citizenship, emergency preparation and the Girl Scout promise. There will be first-class rank for these girls. The senior program will include a choice of activity and direction. They will have eight indispensable which will be earned by troop members. No girl may earn it individually.

Nan Fox, director of the Juliette Low day camp, which will be held at Camp Happy Valley June 18-22, asked that all registrations be mailed to the Penn Laurel Council by May 28.

Dick Bass of the Los Angeles Rams averaged 30.3 yards on each of his 23 kickoff returns during the 1961 National Football League season.

POWER MOWERS NOT ALWAYS EXACTLY SAFE

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Words of caution for power mower operators and gardeners are subjects with a focus on health.

BEWARE POWER MOWERS

There are perhaps some 20 million power lawn mowers in use in the United States—and now with summer and grass cutting season here, power mower owners should beware.

So warn Drs. Erick M. Chazen and John L. Chamberlain III of Vanderbilt University.

They cite cases where power mowers, usually rotary types, catch objects in the lawn and fling them outwards, sometimes hitting bystanders, or sometimes the operator of the mower.

There is a local ordinance in Louisville, Ky., making it illegal to employ anyone under the age of 18 to operate a power mower, and similar laws have been proposed in New York, New Jersey and California, the doctors say.

The cause of accidents is sometimes poorly designed mowers, sometimes carelessness by the operators. Removing debris from the lawn before mowing can often prevent accidents.

Many kind words have been written about the cool green lawns, the pleasant gardens. But the American Medical Association warns that while it is good exercise to garden, there are also hazards.

In the first place, go at it gradually. Give yourself a chance to get used to strenuous activity after sitting around all winter, if you have been.

Since tetanus germs grow in the soil, especially where barnyard fertilizer is used or farm animals exist, it's wise to get a tetanus shot as a hedge against lockjaw.

Use weed killers and bug killers carefully. Many also kill people. Be sure they are capped tightly and put out of the reach of children.

If you are extra sensitive to insect bites, see your doctor about getting some protective shots that will make you less sensitive.

Prisoners Get Three-Day Stay

RAIFORD, Fla. (AP)—Trouble with Florida's electric chair delayed the scheduled execution of two convicted murderers today.

Warden Dewitt Sinclair postponed the execution of Robert Lee Jefferson and Johnnie Hill until Saturday at 8:30 a.m.

They will be the first to die in the new death house at state prison, Sinclair said when the equipment was given a routine check it didn't function properly.

EX-SENATOR, BOB TAFT JR. WIN PRIMARY

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Former Sen. Claude Pepper of Florida and Robert Taft Jr., son of the late Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio, won decisive primary election victories Tuesday in their bids for Congress.

Two other Florida candidates, Sen. George Smathers and Rep. Dante Fascell, also won Democratic renomination. Like Pepper, who was a staunch New Deal supporter in the '30s and '40s, they had strongly endorsed President Kennedy's program and had received the President's blessing.

Results of the voting in five states included:

OHIO—Sen. Frank J. Lausche and Gov. Michael V. DiSalle won Democratic renomination. A man named Kennedy—real estate man Richard D. Kennedy—led a field of 11 Democratic candidates to see who will oppose Taft in the November race for congressman-at-large.

INDIANA — All 11 incumbent congressmen were renominated.

WEST VIRGINIA—All six incumbent congressmen were renominated.

NEW MEXICO—Two Democratic state legislators were locked in a battle for the right to oppose Republican Gov. Edwin Mechem's bid for a fifth term; two Democratic congressmen renominated.

BEATS TWO OPPONENTS

The Florida primary drew the most interest.

Sen. Smathers had little trouble in disposing of Roger L. Davis of Fort Lauderdale and Douglas R. Voorhees of Miami in his bid for a third term.

Fascell had a hard campaign with conservative State Sen. David Eldredge but came out on top. The Miami congressman has been Kennedy's most consistent supporter among the Florida delegation.

Pepper, whom Smathers unseated in the 1950 Democratic primary, made his comeback in the 3rd District. He campaigned hard for the President's program to finance medical care for the aged through Social Security.

MIXED REACTION

The issue appeared to have drawn a mixed reaction in two other Democratic congressional primaries in Florida, a state gaining four new congressmen because of population gains.

One supporter of the Kennedy medical care program, chiropractor John A. Marcello, was defeated by Rep. D. R. Matthews, bidding for his sixth term in Congress.

Another Kennedy supporter, State Rep. L. B. Voele, made it into a runoff election with former State Sen. John A. Sutton in the 11th District.

In Ohio Lausche and Taft ran away from their opponents but DiSalle had stubborn opposition

D. Robert Jones, personnel director at the C. H. Musselman Company Biglerville plant, presents bowling trophy for high average, 181, to Frederic Oyler. Oyler also received a trophy for high series at 613. Seventy Musselman employees participated in bowling starting January 5 and ending April 27.

LABOR UNIONS HAVE EQUAL VOTING POWER

By NORMAN WALKER

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—

Labor strategists have come up with an embarrassing statistic: Union members outnumber professionals and business executives 2-1 but each group exercises about equal voting power in national elections.

Politically conscious delegates to the United Auto Workers Union convention got this information before they acted to support a drive to add 20 to 30 liberal House members to Congress in the fall elections. President Kennedy made it plain he counts on UAW support for Democrats.

President Walter Reuther and other major UAW officers were due to be elected by the convention today to new two-year terms. His slate included a Negro for the first time, Nelson (Jack) Edwards of Detroit, candidate for the UAW Executive Board.

REUTHER'S BROTHER

It was Reuther's brother, Roy, head of the UAW Political Action Department, who brought out the worker-executive voting standoff.

He told the convention the 1960 voting and census figures show union members made up 37 per cent of the voting population but represented only 26 per cent of the votes cast. Executives and professionals making up 18 per cent of the eligible vote cast 26 per cent of the ballots.

Roy Reuther is heading a $1-million drive by the AFL-CIO's 130 affiliated unions to get many thousands more workers registered and voting in this fall's congressional polling. He said one out of three Americans of voting age fail to exercise their ballots.

HOW ELECTED?

The UAW voted overwhelming approval to an all-out political action resolution Tuesday after hearing Kennedy make a major address. The President remarked that after speaking to the U.S. Chamber of Commerce and to American Medical Association executives he had begun to wonder how he ever got elected.

"Now I remember," Kennedy said upon hearing the UAW's roaring reception.

Kennedy skipped an opening line in his prepared text saying he was counting on staunch UAW support in coming legislative and political battles. But the President intimated as much in other passages of his speech.

STUDENTS EAT 57 GOLDFISH

NEW YORK (AP)—Four Fordham University students revived a campus cultural activity of decades past Tuesday. They swallowed 57 goldfish.

The four volunteers set up a table in the campus center and began the gulphation to push lagging sales of tickets for a Saturday night Roaring Twenties party. Every time a ticket was purchased, one of the volunteers would swallow a 1-inch goldfish.

ANALYZE DATA FOR CAUSE OF ROCKET BLAST

By HOWARD BENEDICT

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—

Radio signals and telescopic camera films were analyzed today by technicians seeking the cause of the in-flight explosion of the first Centaur high-energy space rocket.

The study was watched closely by Project Mercury officials for any clue which might force a delay of the orbital space flight of astronaut Malcolm Scott Carpenter, scheduled for May 17.

The 105-foot Centaur blew apart 30,000 feet above the Atlantic Ocean 55 seconds after it was fired on its maiden flight Tuesday.

BLOW TO PLANS

The spectacular failure dealt a severe blow to U.S. plans to develop the rocket as a booster for sending heavyweight payloads into earth orbit and to the moon, Mars and Venus.

Mercury officials were concerned lest the trouble be traced to the Centaur's Atlas first stage. There were indications that the Atlas was at fault.

A similar Atlas missile in on a launching pad here being prepared to loft Carpenter into space on a three-orbit mission similar to that made by Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr. on Feb. 20.

The Atlas is a complex vehicle with more than 300,000 moving parts. If the Centaur failure is traced to the Atlas system, then that part of Carpenter's booster would be checked thoroughly before a green light would be given to his space ride. Analysis of the data may take two or three days.

MANY DELAYS

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration had hoped for a successful first flight of the Centaur to help reduce nearly a year of frustrating delays in launching the rocket. The main problem stems from developing high-energy liquid hydrogen as a propellant for the second stage. Controlling this tricky, super-cold fuel, which must be kept at a temperature of 423 degrees below zero to remain liquid, is the key to Centaur's extra muscle.

Once harnessed, liquid hydrogen will produce 40 per cent greater thrust per pound of fuel than chemical fuels used on present rockets like the Atlas. Centaur's second stage has two hydrogen-driven engines with total thrust of 30,000 pounds—a potent kick when ignited in the vacuum of space.

When operation, hopefully in about two years, Centaur will be capable of lifting 8,500-pound satellites into earth orbit, landing 2,300 pounds on the moon or sending 1,300 pounds to the vicinity of Mars and Venus.

MUSSELMAN'S BOWLERS HOLD TROPHY EVENT

The annual trophy award banquet for bowlers in the C. H. Musselman Company League, comprised of employees from the Biglerville and Gardners plants and the company farms, was held Monday night in the Biglerville cafeteria with 70 present.

With awards presented to 24 outstanding bowlers, the banquet marked the end of the 1962 season which started in January. Fourteen teams participated. The bowlers were guests of the Musselman Company with the Biglerville plant cafeteria staff preparing the dinner.

Charles Trump, personnel director of the Gardners plant, served as toastmaster with William C. Guise, personnel director at Biglerville, presenting the awards. Guests were Daniel J. Wolff, proprietor of the Upper Adams Lanes, and J. A. Hauser, Musselman Company president.

STAYMANS WIN

League champion was the Stayman team with Fred Baltz, captain, Earl White, Leroy Gochenour, Richard Trone and John Thomas. Second-place team was Red Delicious with Gilbert Rose, captain; Martin Showers, Donald Himes, Donald Cox and Barry Birgensmith. The third place Cra's were captained by Clair Winand with Kenneth Carey, Clyde Orner, William Harbold and Harry Peters.

The first place team members were also the recipients of the high pin fall awards.

Frederic Oyler captured individual award honors with a high average of 181 and a high series score of 613. Other individual trophy award winners were: Most improved bowler, Martin Showers; high game, Clair Winand with a score of 254.

The bowling committee was comprised of Charles Shultz, Richard Tate, Kermit Singley, John Thomas, Elmer Chronister, D. Robert Jones, Charles Trump and William Guise with George Martin serving as the league representative to the ABC.

At the close of the banquet, Robert Jones, personnel director at the Biglerville plant and bowling league president, announced plans for the 1962-63 bowling season.

Rule On Negro Teacher Charge

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa. (AP)—Chairman Harry Boyer of the State Human Relations Committee says a ruling will be made in 10 days to two weeks on a Negro teacher's charge that racial discrimination is barring her from a job with the Connelville Joint School System.

The committee took testimony Tuesday on the charge made by Mrs. Jane McPherson. Mrs. McPherson, an English teacher in the Connelville city school system, claims the joint school system has by-passed her on two occasions.

The joint school directors have said salary and not race is the issue in the case of Mrs. McPherson, who has been teaching 20 years.

But Mrs. McPherson testified she is more interested in getting a job than in the salary she would receive.

The joint school system declined to give any testimony Tuesday. Its solicitor, Atty. Donald M. Higbee, moved for dismissal of the charge, claiming lack of evidence. Higbee also said that Mrs. McPherson's application is still in the school system's active files.

The weekend with the Gotwalts, his brother and sister-in-law.

Prize-Winning Photographer Didn't Have Photo Of Self

By RICHARD L. GRAVES
The Associated Press
Shoemakers' children go with-out shoes, goes the old proverb. And Associated Press photog-rapher Paul Vathis didn't have a picture of himself. He needed one. He had just won the Pulitzer Prize and newspapers wanted a picture of him, instead of by him. The call came, happily, as Paul was fraternizing with a dozen of his colleagues in the State Capitol newsroom. He took the telephone and said:

PAUL VATHIS

"No kidding."
His face became wreathed in smiles. He dropped the telephone. He kicked a chair.
"I've got to get a headshot of myself. I won the Pulitzer Prize."
He shook hands all around, then took off at a gallop to meet what —to put it mildly—was his happiest photographic assignment.
MAUCH CHUNG NATIVE
It was a great day and too long in coming for a man esteemed by his colleagues as the best in the business. He had taken pictures of presidents and punks, dances and disasters, sports and spasms and all the thousand and one things that come within the eye of the news camera's lens.
The winning picture was one of President Kennedy and former President Dwight D. Eisenhower taken at Camp David in the Ca-toctin Mountains of Maryland. The time was shortly after the unsuccessful Cuban invasion.
One of the first to offer con-gratulations to Vathis was Penn-sylvania's Gov. David L. Law-rence. He summed up the senti-ments of those who know him by

LHS BAND AND SENIOR CHORUS WILL PERFORM

The Littlestown High School Senior Band and Senior Chorus will present their annual concert on Saturday evening in the high school auditorium at 8 p.m. Par-ents and friends are invited to attend.

The Senior Band, under the direction of Paul A. Harner, will play nine selections. Robert C. Musser, of the faculty, will be narrator.

The personnel of the band fol-lows: Cornets, Paul Bowman, Frank Basehoar Jr., Donald Arbo-gast, Frank Sponseller, Dwight Wintrose, Dorothy Forythe, Robert Hahn, Richard Anderson, David Trump, Ellen Baumgardner, Ron-ald Benner, Earl Strausbaugh; clarinets, Linda Knipple, Linda Harner, Bonnie Green, Gloria Bowers, Joann Scott, Doris Harri-son, Jean Gentzler, Judy Wolfe, Betty Sell, Shirley Bair, Janice Evans, Judy Rimel, Douglas Gitt, Linda Ealy, Barbara Long, Alice Glatfelter, Ellen Miller, Phyllis Wallick, Sharon Long, Kay More-head; drums, Billy Basehoar, Ron-ald Gladhill, JoAnn Beamer, Terry Morelock, Steven Basehoar; bells, Evelyn Koons; marimba, JoAnne Cookson; tympani, Marilyn Miller; flutes, Ann Kroh, Patricia Myers, Betty Leister; trombones, Thomas Shildt, Ned Wantz, James Bower-son; baritones, Ronald Ruggles, George Ambrose; alto saxophones, Melinda Karns, James Bowman, Terry Arbogast, Richard Mail-land, Carole Fox, William Ritter, Carl Ritter; tenor sax, Judy Shomper, Barbara Bittle; baritone sax, Carole Hollinger; bass clari-net, Joan Barton; bass, Fred Sny-der, Betty Morelock; Charles Hahn, Richard Hornberger; horns, Janice King, Judy Applier, Elaine Bridinger, Anna Mayers and Jacie Elder.

Majorettes performing with the a special highpowered motorboat. "You're holding that camera like a baby," a newsman shouted at him.

"If it goes, I go," he said. He meant it.
There was the time when he was assigned to take pictures of for-mer Agriculture Secretary Ezra Benson at Pennsylvania State University. Benson was admiring the dairy stock.
"Bet you can't milk a cow, Mr. Secretary."

"I can, too," said Benson. He went a step further and drank from the cow's milk dispensing equip-ment. Vathis, flat on his stomach in what could generously be called a "dirt," got a picture that was used world-wide.

(Benson later squirted milk at Vathis, who, always alert, ducked. It hit an AP newsman).

There were others, more mem-orable, perhaps. For example: A leering, gesturing Nikita Khrushchev declaiming on a New York balcony.

A hollow-eyed Alger Hiss being released from Lewisburg Peniten-tiary.

A Little Leaguer at bat, blowing a bubble of gum as big as his head.

And now there is the one of two great men, shoulders bent under the burdens of their responsibil-ities, walking away from the cam-era toward their own lonely de-cisions.

band will be JoAnn Beamer, Patri-cia Myers, Janice Evans, Joann Cookson and Kay Morehead. Light-ing will be in charge of Wesley Haines.

The combined Senior Band and Senior Chorus will render "They Call It America," by Freddy Grant. The chorus is directed by Mrs. Ruth W. Elder, and will sing seven numbers.

The chorus personnel includes: First soprano, Connie Bair, Joan Barton, Rosie Beachtel, Gloria Bowers, Elaine Bridinger, Sally Durbin, Janice Evans, Patricia Goodwin, Janice King, Betty Leister, Marilyn Miller, Kay More-head, Lorraine Rineman, Betty Sell, Beverly Updyke, Nancy Ying-ling; second soprano, Judy Applier, Sally Brown, Bonnie Green, Carol Fox, Jean Gentzler, Mary Jane Harmon, Linda Knipple; alto, Shirley Bair, Sally Basehoar, Ellen Baumgardner, JoAnn Beamer, Joann Cookson, Ann Kroh, Carole Hollinger, Karen Hildebrand, Sharon Long, Patsy McLaughlin, Patricia Myers, Carol Reindollar, Phyllis Wallick, Diane Yealy.

Bowman, Francis Barnes, Charles Hahn, Robert Hahn, Richard Horn-berger, Richard Maitland, Richard Motter. JoAnn Scott is piano accompanist; JoAnn Beamer, sec-etary; Sharon Long and Janice King, librarians; Sally Durbin and Patricia Goodwin, wardrobe mis-tresses.

Users for the evening will be Linda DeHoff Nickey, Sandra Freeman, Joyce Knight, Grace Lunsford, Arvella Ketterman, Sandra Albin and Judy Brown.

Downs To Feature Woodlawn Purse

CHARLES TOWN, W. Va.—Bee Zee Stauble's Herodes, who dropped down from handicap com-pany to win his last outing, will go after number two tonight at Shenandoah Downs when he meets seven in the Woodlawn Purse. The race is named in honor of members of the Woodlawn Country Club in Baltimore, who will at-tend the card.

Mrs. Edward H. Hoffman's Lone Jack, also deserting the han-dicappers in search of his first win, may be a sleeper in the field. The chestnut son of Detec-tion rarely is out of the money and the mile is his best route. Pine Hill Stables' Personal Re-gards, who won eight in a row here last year, will be making her 1962 bow but may find the route a little long. Arnold A. Banks' Daisy's Beau, Mrs. Wil-liam E. Jones' Same Day, Ida J. Protosko's Bloomfield 2nd and Elizabeth P. Lee's Queens Coun-ty complete the field.

Shenandoah's last free night of Maryland competition was rapped before it got started by Tuesday's cold rain but 3,670 persons showed up to bet $219,307. This was up some $25,000 over the same date in 1961.

MARCH SUGGESTION

NEW YORK (AP)—Canadian actor Douglas Campbell was raised to co-star billing in the drama "Gideon" at the behest of Frederic March, who had been set for solo spotlight listing.

March made the suggestion at the start of rehearsals, and the idea was quickly adopted by pro-ducers Fred Coe and Arthur Cantor.
